

If your students saw the original, you won't want them to miss the sequel...Trashanator II

What is Trashanator II?

A funny play about waste reduction that teaches the importance of environmental preservation and conservation. This is a sequel to The Trashanator shown to many students in 2002-03.

Cost:

Performances are free of charge. Performance dates are booked on a first come, first served basis.

Location:

The Trashanator play travels to your school. Appropriate accommodations for students per performance are requested.

Audience:

Suitable for grades 3 - 5. Minimum number of students for each performance is 150.

Presented by:

HR CLEAN, SPSA and Old Dominion University's Playtime Theatre

Presentations:

Select performance dates are available. Up to two consecutive performances can be accommodated on any given date. One-week cancellation notice is required.

For more information:

- Trashanator II is correlated to several Standards of Learning including 15 Science and a number of English and Math SOL's. Contact Hampton Roads Planning District Commission at (757) 420-8300 today to schedule a performance for the fall 2003 schedule.

